

Additional Privacy Disclosures for United States Residents Supplemental Notice

Our Privacy Notice explains how we, BusPatrol America LLC, collect and use information when you use our websites or applications (collectively “Services”). This Supplemental Notice addresses the required disclosures and rights associated with United States residents. It does not reflect our use or disclosure of United States residents' information where an exception under an applicable jurisdiction applies.

In the last twelve (12) months, we collected categories of information described in our Privacy Notice.

Identifiers such as a real name, postal address, unique personal identifier, online identifier, internet protocol address, email address, or other similar identifiers.

- Information that identifies or is capable of being associated with you, including payment information.
- Internet or other electronic network activity information, including, but not limited to, browsing history, search history, and information regarding a state resident’s interaction with an Internet website, application, or advertisement.
- Geolocation information.
- Professional or employment-related information.
- Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above reflecting your preferences and characteristics.

In the last twelve (12) months, we used the information we collected for the purposes described in the Information Collection section of our Privacy Notice. In the last twelve (12) months, we disclosed the information we collected to the categories of recipients described in the Disclosure of Information of our Privacy Notice.

In the last twelve (12) months, we "shared" data about United States residents’ IP addresses and device identifiers and their usage of our Services to third-party analytics and advertising vendors who may use this data to provide them with tailored advertising and for their own purposes. We do not sell your information for money.

Rights & Choices: United States residents have certain legal rights related to their information. Except as otherwise provided or excepted by applicable law, you may exercise the following rights:

- Right to Know and Access: You have the right to request disclosure of the information we collect, use, purpose, and disclose about them, and to access their information.
- Right to Correction: You have the right to correct inaccuracies in your information.
- Right to Deletion: You may request the deletion of their information, subject to certain exceptions. Once the deletion request is verified, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete, as applicable) your information from our records.
- Right to Opt-Out: You may opt-out of and restrict the processing of your information for purposes of targeted advertising or profiling, where applicable.
- Right to Data Portability: You may request to receive your information, in a portable and, to the extent technically feasible, readily usable format.
- Right to Non-Discrimination: We will not discriminate against you because you exercise any of the above rights, or any other rights under the applicable United States state laws. Specifically, if you exercise your rights, we will not deny you access to our services, charge you different prices or rates for Services or provide you a different level or quality of the services.

Data Minimization: We will limit the information we store by reviewing no less than annually whether storage of your information serves a legitimate business purpose and removing that information if no legitimate business purpose is identified.

Re-Obtaining Consent: We may re-seek consent from you if you have previously opted out from processing activities. If you have not interacted with us for at least one (1) year, we are required by applicable law to re-obtain your affirmative consent to process any of your information.

State Specific Disclosures
